Presenter President Sue Budjac described her first nine months and nineteen days in the role of President. She was well prepared having been VP Administrative Affairs just prior to her new role. She has been with MSTC since 2001. Sue became only the fifth president of MSTC.

- In this time of economic pressures enrollment at MSTC has been increasing. There has been a thirty percent increase in students in the past three years.
- Moving the Stevens Point campus to the former Penney's area of the former downtown mall is important to the school's future, and certainly to the Boys and Girls Club which could move to the former Armory area.
- About 75% of the students live within twenty five miles of the campus. Hundreds of students complete internships through MSTC. Rotarian Ann Huntoon noted that MSTC students have been valuable to the CWSO.
- Areas of special interest to businesses in the area are IT, healthcare, manufacturing like welding, and the five new renewable energy areas.

- President Sue has been a member of the Wisconsin Rapids Noon Rotary for a number of years and is the incoming president in 2012-13.

Happy Dollars

- Terry Arnold – Polio update. In his recent presentation it was noted that there are a number of countries with occasional polio rather than the four endemic countries – Pakistan, Afghanistan, India and Nigeria. Unfortunately, it has been reported that polio migrated from Pakistan into the nearby western provinces of China. Chinese health authorities have vaccinated more than 9 million people in a far western region against polio amid an outbreak of the disease that has paralyzed 17 people and killed one of them. China had been free for 11 years of the paralytic disease that mostly hits children, before the first few cases were reported in July in Hotan prefecture in Xinjiang. The outbreak has exposed gaps in vaccination coverage in the remote region where access to quality health services is poor. In another report, India reported just one polio case this year — on January 13 in the Howrah district of West Bengal — bringing India closest to polio eradication ever. Globally, 467 polio cases were reported in 16 countries till October 19, 2011, with Pakistan leading the pack with 118. India is taking special precautions since Pakistan and western China are so close.
- RYE Utku – back to normal after RYLA weekend – maybe a little boring. He did speak at the monthly UWSP ROTARACT meeting. And, he carved his first Halloween pumpkin.
- Randy Zietlow's 6-month old son is sitting up, walking around and already is into size twelve-month clothes. Sounds like the old expression 'growing like a weed'.
- Sara Brish really happy – their 2-year old is 'trained'.
- Jim Owens 'monster report' on their three boys. The seven year old really liked the Y party and the pumpkin picking.
- Cliff King got two free tickets to the Packer-Viking game for a friend, a friend disgusted with the Vikings so he gave Cliff the tickets on the 50-yard line, six rows up. The friend maybe was rethinking his gift in the first half, but the Pack prevailed and is undefeated. Go PACK.
- John Billings recent cataract eye surgery was such a success that he's without glasses after 67 years, and now he's humming 'I can see clearly now'. Oh the marvels of new technology. Mary Williams wondered if the optometrist bought roses but no comment.

From Rotary International – World Polio Day – October 24th and all this week!

On World Polio Day, 24 October, Rotarians around the globe show their support for ending the disease, which still strikes young children in Asia, Africa, and the Middle East. For more than two decades, eradicating polio has been Rotary's No. 1 priority. Through the Global Polio Eradication Initiative, Rotary has come "this close" to its goal. The number of polio cases worldwide has dropped 99 percent since 1985, and the virus remains endemic in only four countries -- Afghanistan, India, Nigeria, and Pakistan. India has reported only one case of the virus this year, as of 12 October, compared to 39 cases during the same period in 2010. But much work remains. The final 1 percent of cases presents the most difficult and expensive challenge. Failure would open the door to a resurgence of the disease that would put millions of children at risk of lifelong paralysis. Eradicating polio would free up billions of dollars to address other world problems.

Rotarian circles Australia in a dinghy for polio eradication

Many Rotarians have gone to extremes to raise money for Rotary's US$200 Million Challenge. But Australian Rotarian Robert Pennicott set a record with his fundraising venture. Pennicott, fellow Tasmanian Mick Souter, and cameraman Zorro Gamarnik became the first people to circumnavigate Australia in boats powered by outboard motors.

Pennicott, a member of the Rotary Club of Kingston, and Souter piloted two 17-foot-long inflatable dinghies, propelled by twin 60-horsepower engines, on the 12,000-mile journey around the Australian continent (including the island state of Tasmania). They began in Sydney on 2 June and arrived back on 11 September.

"Rotarians have worked tirelessly toward eradicating polio for the past 25 years. With now just 1 percent to go, I decided to do something different and a bit 'out there' to try to raise a bit of money," Pennicott said. "I believe it's the weird and wacky ideas that get people talking, and I don't think they come much crazier than traveling around Australia in a rubber dinghy."

The effort, dubbed Follow the Yellow Boat Road, has raised more than $250,000 to date, and fundraising will continue for several months. Rotary's challenge, which seeks to match $355 million in grants from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, will receive 92 percent of the proceeds; the remainder will support nature conservation projects through a foundation Pennicott established in May. Trip sponsors included National Geographic Traveler, Tourism Australia, branding firm Green Team, and communications company Telstra.
