- Dave Kenda, trainer, Fire Fitness Camp Plover
- RYE from Finland – Otto. Went to a Brewer game; host mom got hit by a ball; graduation party at UWSP Brew Haus with morning club RYE Giulia was a blast; Otto off to Houghton/Hancock for a few days with a Finnish flavor, getting him ready for the trip home. [still need someone to pick him up in Eagle River on June 5th].

Announcements

- Almost over - “No Child’s Wet Behind” diaper drive until Father’s Day. Cash donations appreciated since United Way buys in bulk. As of last week the morning club had collected $195 and change; we had $346 and change which keeps us in the lead on a per capita basis. So keep up the pressure.
Here’s a link: <http://www.unitedwaypoco.org/articles/no-childs-wet-behind>
- Club receives special Rotary International Significant Achievement Award recognizing the Post-Polio Syndrome campaign. Only one club per district may be nominated by the DG – and that’s us – and not all nominees are selected. When coupled with the 2013-14 Presidential Citation and President Ann’s selection for the District Service Award this has been some year.
- Paul Harris Fellows for 2014 – presentation June 25
 - Rotarian Jim Anderson [2nd award] – Centennial Project leadership; Past President
 - Rotarian Jen Selwyn – RYE leadership and hosting
 - Rotarian Mary Williams [5th award] – Post-Polio Leadership; Past President, 1st women member.
- Community Member Eva Donohoo, Assistant to the Dean for Communication, College of Professional Studies, UWSP; professional AV assistance with Post-Polio Project [given by Rotarian Mary Williams and husband Bob].
- Green Circle sign up about full -- See Bob Stack. It’s such a great walk on the River Pines segment.
- Raffle – Ardie Lange had the right number and got the joker. Lunch money to ‘no wet behind’ project but no decision on the big winning until the amount is known.

Program: Betty Lou Sweeney, Guinness Book of Record holder for ‘plank position’, and she did it at 71. Now 74 the record may have just been broken.

- Fire Fitness Camp doesn’t use the typical fitness center equipment

- Betty Lou started the training at 69 after many serious medical problems and taking 26 different meds.
- She was a nurse and knew her problems were becoming more complicated and life threatening.
- She lost 110 pounds and gained tremendous body tone leading to the Guinness Record.
- Still laughs that she tried a treadmill and fell off, so the Fire Camp program was just down her alley.

Happy Dollars

- $10 Brad Corbett – son graduated from UWEC and has a job in Milwaukee – off the dole; good student and enjoyed playing football. Introduced new Sentry attorney – planning retirement sure looks in the works.
- Congrats to the new Paul Harris Fellows announced in the bulletin last week.
- Pres Ann – some test passed.
- Martha Garrett – great time in Idaho
- Kathy Trachte – GD set pole vault record at Mosinee in recent meet.
- Patty Cahill – asked for thoughts for 1 ½ year old sick GD.
- Steve Cywinski – son finished at St. Steve’s – wow time flies.
- Todd Kuckkahn – middle school team world champ in Odyssey of the Mind competition after Pacelli HS team won similar honor last year.
- Al Thompson – whew – UWSP over for another year.
